GREEN CENTURY FUNDS

Green Century is the only mutual fund company in the United States wholly owned by environmental and public health nonprofit organizations. 100% of the profits earned from managing the Green Century Funds belong to those nonprofit organizations.

Nonprofit Ownership

More than 25 years ago, a group of environmental leaders founded Green Century to provide a way for people who care about the planet to save for their future without compromising their values.

Today, every dollar Green Century earns managing its Funds supports those nonprofit organizations and their work to protect the environment and public health and enact positive public policy.

As the first family of fossil fuel free, responsible, and diversified mutual funds in the U.S., few mutual funds can match Green Century's sustainable-investment strategy. A sustainable investment strategy which incorporates environmental, social and governance criteria may result in lower or higher returns than an investment strategy that does not include such criteria.

Even fewer offer an in-house, in-depth shareholder advocacy program.

No other mutual fund offers investors the opportunity to make an environmental impact through its ownership, which makes Green Century truly one of a kind.

Green Century has provided financial support for numerous environmental and public health campaigns of its nonprofit owners and partners, including:

Climate change

The 100% Renewable Energy campaign, which helped push six states – Hawaii, California, New Mexico, Washington, New York, and Maine – to adopt 100% zero-carbon electricity legislation and is now promoting similar legislation in Massachusetts, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, North Carolina, Florida, Michigan, Illinois, and Minnesota

Plastic pollution

The Wildlife Over Waste campaign, which aims to protect our oceans and marine life, including sea turtles and other endangered species, from plastic pollution and helped convince Maine, Maryland, Vermont, and Oregon to ban polystyrene

Renewable energy

The Go Solar campaign, which helped prod California to install more than one million solar roofs across the state and mandate solar panels on all new homes built after 2020

Antibiotics

The Stop the Overuse of Antibiotics campaign that helped convince McDonald's,* the largest purchaser of beef in the world, to restrict the use of antibiotics in its beef and chicken supply chains and continues to push more restaurant chains to do the same

Pollinators

The No Bees, No Food campaign aimed at convincing the Environmental Protection Agency to declare a nationwide moratorium on the use of pesticides decimating bee colonies

Electric vehicles

The 21st Century Transportation campaign aimed at urging the Environmental Protection Agency to protect America's clean car standards

Public Lands

The permanent reauthorization of the Land and Water Conservation Fund, which has been instrumental in protecting national treasures, such as the Grand Canyon, Great Smoky Mountains, and the Appalachian Trail
